From: American City & County Government Update
To: gwilliam@bakersfieldpd.us
Subject: San Francisco is first city to ban city use of facial recognition tech
Date: Monday, May 20, 2019 2:27:33 PM

View Online

American City & County Government Update

––– Government Update –––

MAY 20, 2019

Gallery

ADVERTISEMENT

The 10 fattest American cities in 2019

Financial news and information site WalletHub used data from multiple federal agencies and private surveys to compare obesity levels in the 100 largest metro areas in the country. We've included the top 10 here. Is your city on the list?
View Gallery

ADVERTISEMENT

When vendors compete, you win! 400 public purchasers use Vendor Registry to connect with 70,000 vendors. Save time using online vendor management; reduce costs 5-30% with multiple vendor bids. It's FREE. Schedule an appointment with our friendly team and we'll help get you all set up. CLICK HERE.

In the News

San Francisco becomes first city to ban municipal use of facial recognition technology

San Francisco became the first American city to ban city use of facial recognition surveillance technology.
Read More

Kansas City leaders criticize Missouri anti-abortion bill

Kansas City, Mo., leaders made their outrage clear shortly after the state legislature passed one of the most restrictive abortion bills in the country.
Read More

Featured White Paper

Asset management basics: A guide for communities of all sizes

From crafting your asset management strategy and finding the right solution to performing your initial inventory and maintaining your system, this white paper will walk you through the process step-by-step.

View White Paper

Smart Cities

How smart city technology can improve quality of life

Doug Peeples, readiness editor at the Smart Cities Council, explains how local governments can use smart city initiatives to improve quality of life in their communities.
Read More

Co-op Solutions

Procurement teams need training in non-traditional areas

Areas like performance management and negotiating would increase procurement teams' value.

Read More

Connect With Us

Manage Subscriptions | Subscribe To Print | Archive

You are subscribed to this newsletter as gwilliam@bakersfieldpd.us

Questions or problems? Contact Customer Service

American City & County | Informa | 605 Third Avenue, 22nd Floor, New York, NY 10158

© 2019, Informa USA, Inc., All Rights Reserved .
Privacy Statement